The Club will participate in several Halloween events and will be sponsoring their Spaghetti Dinner on Election Night. There is a Testimonial Dinner scheduled on October 28th for PLG Deb Rought at Ravenwood Golf Club.

Farmington-Victor

They sorted potatoes at the Food Cupboard and they are sponsoring the College Fair at Eastview Mall on September 20th from 6 -8pm and they will participate in the Pumpkin Walk on October 22nd.

Geneva

The club is hosting a Chicken BBQ and their first Golf Tournament. Plans are being made for an awards ceremony in November for first responders.

Honeoye Falls, Lima, Mendon

They are holding a raffle for tickets to a Buffalo Bills game and planning a Bowling and Brews Oktoberfest.

Lakeshore Rochester

There is a new principal at one of the schools and they are hoping to reactivate the relationship with the school to sponsor events for the children. They will have their $2,500 Raffle this year and are planning a chicken BBQ.

Newark

They just delivered backpacks with school supplies to the schools and will be having two chicken BBQ events.

Palmyra Macedon

The Club is reorganizing and working with club builders on an analysis of the community.

Penfield Perinton

Most meetings over the summer were still via Zoom. They will be doing an analysis with hopes to increase their membership.

Seneca Falls Waterloo

The Annual Golf Ball Drop is September 24th and tickets are on sale. They will have an Election Day Dinner and they will be hosting the Martini Meatball Dinner with Adrienne as Mrs. Martini during It's A Wonderful Life celebration. They will have a Lottery Calendar out in mid October for sale with the start date for January 1st.

Webster

The annual $100 Dinner will be held at Ontario Golf Club on October 8th and tickets are on sale.

LG COMMENTS:

LG Deb thanked all the clubs for their support this year and commended them for their outstanding service and projects.

DIVISION CHAIR REPORTS:

Child Protection

PLG John Treahy reported that all clubs participated and received the training this year.

Conferences & Conventions

LGE Chris reported the state convention in Rochester went well and was well attended. She also praised the host committee for a job well done.

Golisano MMOD LGE Chris reported that our division did not raise as much money this year and hopes we will do better next year. She encouraged the clubs to engage their SLP for this event

Kamp Kiwanis LGD Tom reported that this weekend is a clean-up weekend.

Membership PLG Tris said that the numbers in the Finger Lakes Division are up but cautions that September historically takes a hit with dropping members. The Finger Lakes Membership team hopes to visit all clubs in the division to assess their needs and offer their assistance.

Pediatric Lyme Disease PLG Peter Pellittieri reminded our members that Lyme Disease is prevalent in our area. Be cautious and dress properly when outdoors and check yourself and your pets for any ticks upon your return from outdoor activities. If you suspect a problem seek treatment immediately. He reminded all that the funds are raised through the purchase of a Brittany and the other fellowship awards.

Pull Tabs Deb brought tabs from Palmyra Macedon that they have collected.

SLP Programs LG Deb passed around a Thank You that was received from Key Club LG telling us how grateful she was for the opportunity to attend the Key Club International Convention in Washington, DC through our division's monetary gift of sponsorship.

Webmaster Marty reported that he is working with Tom

Old Business PG Bob Calabrese was recognized at the District Convention for 60 years membership in Kiwanis. Patches were distributed to any clubs that completed the Governor's Project in 2019-2020.

New Business LGD Tom proposed purchasing a new flag pole and Kiwanis flag with an additional blue flag to fly at location of our division meetings and Kiwanis yard signs for no more than $775. Chris Mitchell made a motion which was seconded by Phil Alamond and approved by the membership.

PASSING OF THE BANNER Representatives from the Canandaigua and Seneca Falls Waterloo clubs joined LG Deb and LGD Tom as the banner was officially passed representing a change in leadership beginning on October 1, 2022.
